

Why It's Time For The United States To Withdraw From The United Nations

Created By Evan Mulch And Given To Congressman Trey Gowdy On Monday, May 9th, 2016

Who Founded The United Nations And Helped Communists Leaders Involved?

- America's Alger Hiss served as the acting Secretary General during the UN's founding conference during the Spring of 1945
- Soviet communist Andrei Vyshinsky co-authored the UN Charter with Alger Hiss
- Hiss was later shown to be a secret communist and went to prison for lying about his communist connections
- Hiss was able to promote scores of like-minded communists to UN posts before he went to prison

A New Secretary General Will Be Chosen Before The End Of 2016

- The UN's power resides with the UN's Security Council (15 members)
 - Permanent members: United States, the Russian Federation, China, France and the United Kingdom
 - Each have veto power when selecting a Secretary General
- The new Secretary General must win a majority of the vote from the 193 members of the UN

Who In The Past Has Been Secretary General?

- Norwegian Trygve Lie served in the post from 1946 to 1952. He held a high position in Norway's Social Democratic Labor Party, an undisguised offshoot of the Communist International. He owed his appointment to strong backing by the Soviet Union.
- From 1953 to 1961, Sweden's Dag Hammarskjöld served as Secretary General. He actually claimed that his political hero was Communist China's mass murderer Chou En-lai. Hammarskjöld led the UN when the world government's forces attacked Katanga, the freedom-seeking province of the former Belgian Congo.
- Burma's U Thant followed from 1961 to 1971. Openly advocating world government, Thant praised the murderous Soviet tyrant Vladimir Lenin, even approving Lenin's goals because, he revealingly stated, they were "in line with the aims of the UN Charter."

- From 1972 until 1981, Austria's Kurt Waldheim held the post. A favorite of the USSR, his past service as an officer in the Nazi army during World War II was conveniently overlooked. Another admirer of Chou En-lai, Waldheim cheered the successful campaign to oust Nationalist China from the UN in favor of the Communist Chinese regime.
- Next came Peru's Javier Perez de Cuellar (1982-1991). A Marxist, he championed distribution of the world's wealth.
- From 1992-1996, Egypt's Boutros Boutros-Ghali held the post for only one five-year term and was refused reappointment. While in office, he bluntly called for an end to "absolute and exclusive sovereignty."
- The next Secretary General was Kofi Annan of Ghana who held the post from 1997 to 2006. Known for his consistent attacks on the very concept of national sovereignty, he was accused of complicity in the massacres occurring in Europe's Bosnia and Africa's Rwanda.
- South Korea's Ban Ki-moon succeeded Annan and must step aside before December 31, 2016. A believer of the claims of climate change enthusiasts, Ban has also pushed for the goals of Agenda 21 and Agenda 2030.

How Has The UN Played A Role In The Refugee Flood?

- The UN Refugee Agency (UNHCR) has been placing individuals it designates as refugees in numerous parts of the globe. Using its power, UNHCR personnel decide who is a refugee and, additionally, where those it so designates will be placed.
- In actual practice, a person seeking refugee status places himself/herself before a UNHCR official who decides whether or not to award such a designation and which country should accept the individual. Many thousands have already been placed inside the United States via this process and little (most likely nothing) has been done to assure that there are no terrorists among them. Refugees sent to the United States then receive an array of generous benefits at taxpayer expense.

What About The North Atlantic Treaty Organization (NATO)?

- Created in 1949, NATO was sold to the Congress and the American people as a military force able to block any additional conquests of the Soviet Union. Its real purpose was to place the forces of several nations under United Nations control.
- America's forces are currently serving in 130+ separate nations. Various alliances and commitments, NATO being the most obvious, have given a green light for U.S. forces to be involved in just about every spat large or small. The Constitution does not permit our nation to be the "policemen of the world."
 - When a few senators challenged President Truman's 1950 high-handed decision to send troops to Korea, the president insisted, "We're not at war; this is a police action."

The United Nations Wants Taxing Power

- Recently a nine-member panel, made up of representatives of donor nations, some corporations, and some international bureaucracies, suggests that the UN be allowed to place a small tax on international sporting events such as the soccer's World Cup, concerts where famous artists perform, and more. They even included as a potential source of revenue a tax on Uber taxi fares. And the recommendations include a preference for cash, not for blankets and food.

Have United States War Powers Suffered Due To The United Nations?

- December 1941 marked the last time Congress used its power to declare war, first against Japan and then days later against Germany and Italy when these two nations declared war on the U.S
- No one should ignore the fact that World War II happened to be the last war our nation won. We didn't win in Korea, or Vietnam, or Desert Storm. And we're not winning in Afghanistan after 13-plus years of struggle.
- In 1973, after several years of sacrificing thousands of lives and spending billions of dollars in Vietnam, Congress decided to challenge the presidential usurpation of its exclusive war-making power. The lawmakers passed the "War Powers Act" that gave the president the right to use America's forces without declaring war, requiring only that the president seek a congressional OK to continue using troops. However, whenever troops are already actively involved in combat somewhere, it is certain that very few in Congress would cease funding their mission. The War Powers Act didn't help the situation; it merely gave members of Congress the opportunity to say they did something.
- The Korean War was fought under authorization supplied by the UN. Authorization supplied by the Southeast Asia Treaty Organization (a duplicate of NATO and, like it, a "regional arrangement" authorized by the UN) resulted in the Vietnam War. Desert Storm was authorized by the UN. And the Afghan struggle has been placed in the hands of NATO. The U.S. military has become the UN's force.

Who Runs The Meditation Room At The UN Headquarters In New York?

- Incorporated in 1922 by occultists Foster and Alice Bailey, The Lucis Trust (formerly known as The Lucifer Trust) aggressively promotes the globalist ideology of "goodwill" and has run the meditation run since its found in 1957
- From Alice Bailey's book Destiny of Nations, she wrote, "Thus the expressed aims and efforts of the United Nations will be eventually brought to fruition and a new church of God, gathered out of all religions and spiritual groups, will unitedly bring to an end the great heresy of separateness. Love, unity, and the Risen Christ will be present, and He will demonstrate to us the perfect life."

- In a letter written found on the UN website written from UN Secretary General Ban-ki Moon to Pope Benedict XVI, Moon wrote “Before leaving the UN today, you will visit the Meditation Room. My great predecessor, Dag Hammarskjold, who created that room, put it well. He said of the stone that forms its centerpiece [and I quote]: “We may see it as an altar, empty not because there is no God, not because it is an altar to an unknown God, but because it is dedicated to the God whom man worships under many names and in many forms.”

How Much Money Does The United States Pay To The United Nations?

- Right now, the United States pays the UN about $8 billion in dues and voluntary payments, far more than any other country. We pay 22 percent of the UN’s operating budget and 28 percent of the peacekeeping budget. As one observer noted, that’s more than the combined total supplied to the UN by 176 of its member nations. (There are 193 member nations in the UN.)
- A Heritage Foundation examination of the UN’s efforts in combating humanitarian crises found: 1) the UN’s aid efforts ranked among the worst in efficiency; 2) mismanagement, fraud and corruption are common in peacekeeping operations; and 3) UN personnel have been accused of sexual abuses in at least a dozen nations where they were sent.

What Makes The UN Charter An Illegal Charter For The US To Entangle With?

- The complete text of the UN Charter’s Article 25 states: “The Members of the United Nations agree to accept and carry out the decisions of the Security Council in accordance with the present Charter.” That clearly stated requirement supersedes adherence to the U.S. Constitution.
- Articles 52-54 of the UN Charter permit nations to form “Regional Arrangements” to conduct military operations. Under these three articles in the Charter, NATO and SEATO were created.
 - The UN subsidiary SEATO (Southeast Asia Treaty Organization) was relied upon to have U.S. forces participate in the Vietnam War. Restrictions placed on their actions prevented victory and assured defeat. SEATO no longer exists.
- Article 2 of the UN Charter states: “nothing contained in the present Charter shall authorize the United Nations to intervene in matters which are essentially within the domestic jurisdiction of any state....” But the UN meddles in an array of matters, which are certainly within the jurisdiction of individual states (countries). The UN has meddled in our nation’s affairs in such matters as abortion, capital punishment, the right to be armed, border control, mining, judicial decisions, and more.

What Does HR 1205 (The American Sovereignty Restoration Act) Do?

- The legislation would repeal the UN Participation Act of 1945
 - Terminate all membership by the United States in the United Nations, and in any organ, specialized agency, commission, or other formally affiliated body of the United Nations
 - Includes UNESCO, a specialized agency President Ronald Reagan withdrew from. Also includes the World Health Organization, the UN Environment Program (UNEP)
 - It would end all U.S. involvement in all UN conventions and agreements
- The bill would save taxpayers billions of dollars each year
- U.S. military involved in UN military “peacekeeping” schemes would come home and would no longer have to serve under UN command.
- The UN headquarters would be evicted from U.S. soil
- The UN could no longer use American government facilities
- UN bureaucrats and dignitaries would no longer have diplomatic immunity
- The legislation would possibly put a complete stop on the momentum within the borders of the United States for the UN’s Agenda 21, Agenda 2030, Arms Trade Treaty, and Law of the Sea Treaty
